

I value a diversity of opinion in the media, and request that you leave in place the laws limiting ownership and cross-ownership of media outlets. If one company controls the media then the domination of that company would restrict multiple opinions on important issues (ie governmental, environmental, etc.) and these opinions are essential to a healthy democracy.